Augie,

I am actively researching the possibility of expanding our aging trolleys. I'm exploring various options including renting from Santa Barbara Trolley ($4,500/mo per trolley), buying a new/used trolley, etc. Do you want to set up a meeting to discuss? I am exploring options now since we need to get the summer trolleys up and running by Mother's Day weekend.

Also, regarding the LA Fleet Week Welcome party, last year Arley gave us the Hollywood theme to work with. When should we start these discussions?

I want to plan these with plenty of time this year. Satin Dolls have already contacted me and are looking to book early this year. Last year, the Welcome Party was also the first day of school for kids.
